McCain Foods

Passionate about potatoes.

At McCain, we're passionate about potatoes. And with our potato products, we aim to bring joy to everyday meal times. As a family-owned company, we care both about using simple ingredients in our products and about our people who make them.

Here you'll find out everything you need to know about who we are, how we create simple food that tastes good, our sustainability projects and where we – and our potatoes – come from, as well as getting to know the farmers we support and who grow the potatoes we use.

Simple ingredients, prepared with care

How do we make chips? Like our potatoes, we keep it simple. We simply wash, peel and cut our spuds, then lightly fry in sunflower oil. Then we freeze them. And that's it. Some of our products do have natural coatings or flavourings.

The simple truth about McCain:

- No artificial colours or flavours
- 97% of our potato products have only green or amber nutritional indicators, meaning they're low in saturated fat, fat and sugar.
- Most of our products are low in salt and we're continually looking to reduce this where possible.

Lutosa

Lutosa has been successfully involved in potato processing since 1978, during which time it has built an excellent reputation for product quality and outstanding service.

This business, originating from Belgium in the Western part of Europe, runs 2 production sites in Belgium and employs 1,000 people. In 2017, the company processed 800,000 tons of potatoes and sold 353.882 tons of finished products. Its turnover amounted to €302,532,000 with 94% of the production being exported to 138 different countries.

The production units are fitted with state-of-the-art equipment, enabling them to produce a very wide product range according to the highest hygiene and quality standards. All of them have been awarded IFS – BRC certificates (audit by ISACert). Lutosa has its own laboratory.

Lutosa manufactures and markets a wide range of frozen French fries and specialities (Pom' Pin, Duchesse, Spicy Wedges, Röstis, Mashed Potatoes) as well as an organic range. It also manufactures pre-fried chilled chips and dehydrated potato flakes.

These products are sold to food service networks, via wholesalers, to large and mid-sized distribution retailers, and to industrial food companies.
